

2007 BYRON BAY WRITERS FESTIVAL

Festival Writer: Elizabeth Best

Elizabeth Best published her first book Eli's Wings (non-fiction) with Penguin Books in 2002, with a revised edition in 2003. It became an inspirational bestseller with reprints in Australia and internationally. She has presented to thousands of business men, women, parents and students at educational and corporate events, including international expos and nation-wide conferences.

As a freelance journalist, Elizabeth has published articles in the UK and Australia including the Herald Sun, The Age, The Australian and various other publications. She has spent the last year researching abroad whilst writing for feature film and recruiting potential life partners from foreign countries.

The Year We Seized the Day, published by Allen and Unwin and co-authored with Colin Bowles, is her second non-fiction title. She is currently working on a project set in France that does not involve betadine or blisters.

The festival for thinkers