

2007 BYRON BAY WRITERS FESTIVAL

Festival Writer: Gail Jones

Gail Jones is both a writer and an academic. She currently teaches literature, cultural studies and film at the University of Western Australia and is the author of two books of short stories, The House of Breathing and Fetish Lives, and four novels, Black Mirror, Sixty Lights, Dreams of Speaking, and the most recent, Sorry.

Her works have won numerous literary awards and been widely translated overseas. She travels often and has been awarded writers residencies in India, Ireland, the USA and France.

Website: www.randomhouse.com.au

the festival for thinkers